House Bill No 135--To regulate forfeiture, certain vehicles.

Mr. Kent moved that House Bill No. 135 be passed on third and final consideration.

Mr. Murphy moved to amend as follows:

AMENDMENT NO. 1

Amend House Bill No. 135 by adding a new Section to be appropriately numbered and to read as follows:

Section _____. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 39-3-213 is amended by adding a new subsection (c) as follows:

(c) Vehicles or other property shall not be forfeited unless the vehicle or other property, belongs to a person who is tried and convicted of the offense which makes the vehicle or other property subject to forfeiture. If the property has been disposed of said person may file a claim with the Division of Claims Administration. The Division of Claims Administration shall immediately transfer the claim to the Tennessee Claims Commission and upon a finding by that Commission that the person should have been protected from forfeiture of property under this subsection, the person shall be fully reimbursed for said property. Any person who has had a vehicle or other property forfeited prior to the effective date of this subsection, and who files a request for return of said property within thirty (30) days of the effective date of this subsection, shall have said property or vehicle returned or may file a claim for the value of the property as set out in this subsection, if said person was not tried and convicted of the offense which makes the property or vehicle subject to forfeiture.

On motion, the amendment was adopted.

Thereupon, House Bill No. 135, as amended, passed its third and final consideration by the following vote:

AMENDMENT NO. 1

Amend House Bill No. 53 by adding the following at the end of the existing Section 1:

Provided, however, any party to a civil action may request a jury of twelve (12) persons. Such request shall be made by written motion and filed with the clerk of the court at least ten (10) days before the civil action is set for trial. Any party to the action may oppose the motion. For good cause shown the court may deny the request.

If all parties to a civil action agree to a trial by a jury of twelve (12) persons, they shall notify the clerk of the court by written agreement at least ten (10) days before the case is set for trial, and the court shall grant a jury trial of twelve (12) persons.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 6, 1985--18th LEGISLATIVE DAY

Failure of any party to a civil action to file a written motion or a written agreement for a jury of twelve (12) persons constitutes a waiver of any objection to a trial by a jury of six (6) persons.
